Magical Gangster at The Factory for Festa

PICS ATTACHED

Magical gangster “Al Cappucino” will be this year’s crazy entertainment at The Old Macaroni Factory for the Swiss Italian Festa.

Don’t miss him on Friday 25th April when he’ll perform at the “Little Corner of Italy” dinner. A fun evening of magic, music, singing and pasta delights featuring dishes from Italy’s Piedmont region.

Enzo Ficco alias “Al Cappucino” was born in 1965 and named after his late uncle, known in Italy as Blumen (Vincenzo Ficco), a famous magician in the 1950’s. Enzo inherited his uncle’s tools of the trade and has become a master himself, while adding his own love of gangster movies into the mix.

Enzo’s creation as a charming rogue manipulates billiard balls, cards and cigarettes as easily as he manipulates people. Often accompanied by his moll “Trixy”, Al has been the highlight of the night for dozens of Australia’s top corporations and many special events. His award-winning stage act is a total 1920’s experience!

Show cover charge is $12 per head and celebrations start 6.30pm!
Guests should book early on (03) 5348 4345 or 0404 123 153.

Swiss-Italian Festival celebrations at The Old Macaroni Factory run Friday 25th to Sunday 27th April.

Lucini’s historic pasta café and bar is open for lunch and dinner Friday night through to Sunday. Historic fresco tours run 11am and 3pm Saturday and Sunday. In the street on the weekend, enjoy Lucini’s famous sausages at the Street Carnivale. For more info including accommodation visit: www.macaronifactory.com.au or phone (03) 5348 4345
